Stebelton Snider welcomes new associate, Mickellea Tennis

Stebelton Snider, LPA is excited to announce the addition of Mickellea Tennis to their Civil Litigation, Juvenile Law and Estate Planning practices.

Mickellea graduated summa cum laude from Capital University Law School in 2020, where she served as the Managing Editor of the Capital University Law Review. She was admitted to the Ohio Bar after sitting for the October Bar Exam. Mickellea previously clerked with Stebelton Snider and transitioned to her role as an associate attorney after passing the Bar Exam. She completed her undergraduate studies at The Ohio State University, with a BA in International Relations and Diplomacy.

Originally from Alexandria, Ohio, Mickellea currently resides in German Village, where she enjoys running, reading, listening to podcasts and visiting local breweries. She has been active in her community participating in pro bono clinics for the Capital University Law School ACLU.

Please welcome Mickellea to the community as you see her out and about.
